

Course IV: Jesus Christ's Mission Continues in the Church

Course IV Purpose:

The purpose of this course is to help the students understand that in and through the Church they encounter the living Jesus Christ. They will be introduced to the fact that the church was founded by Christ through the Apostles and is sustained by Him through the Holy Spirit. The students will come to know that the Church is the living Body of Christ today. This Body has both divine and human elements. In this course, students will learn not so much about events in the life of the Church, but about the sacred nature of the Church.

Course IV Essential Questions:

- How does the Church help one encounter the living God in Jesus?
- How does the Church encourage the People of God to respond to become the Body of Christ?
- How does understanding and appreciating the Church, as the living Body of Christ, help one live out the mission of Jesus in the world today?

Course IV Guiding Questions:

What does it mean to be “Church”?

How does the Holy Spirit guide the Church?

How does my understanding of leadership, authority, and tradition in the Church help me grow in faith?

How are the different images of the church offered in Scripture and Tradition, and what do they tell us about the Church?

Show how the Church is one, holy, catholic, and apostolic?

Who makes up the Catholic Church? What are the different roles?

How does the Church continue the mission of Jesus in the world today?

How is the Church necessary for living a life of faith? What does it mean to be fundamentally social beings, culturally diverse and made for community?

Note:

Essential questions promote deep and enduring understanding. They cannot be answered in one sentence. Even though they are written simplistically, they are complex enough to be broken down into smaller, guiding questions.

Guiding questions are more detailed questions that support the essential questions of the course.

Challenge Questions

“This element is designed to give catechetical instruction for high-school age young people an apologetical component. Publishers and teachers or catechists are to strive to provide for a catechetical instruction and formation that is imbued with an apologetical approach. Challenges that appear under one particular theme can also apply to other themes in the framework, and such application is encouraged.” Introduction to The Bishops’ Framework

Answers to each of the following questions with references to the Catechism are found in the last section of each course in the Framework. It should be noted, however, that each question has also been addressed within the coursework of the standards.

- A. Why do I have to be a Catholic? Aren’t all religions as good as another?
- B. Isn’t the Church being hypocritical in telling other people to be holy and avoid sin when many Catholics, including the clergy, are guilty of terrible wrongs?
- C. Who needs organized religion? Isn’t it better to worship God in my own way, when and how I want?
- D. How is it that the Catholic Church is able to sustain the unity of her members even though they live out their faith in different cultures and sometimes express their faith in different ways?
